

What DPServer can do for you: Accounting

- Charge customers according to their usage
- Perform capacity planning based on usage over time
- Conduct system tuning and improve operations based on usage during high and low volume periods and critical print job schedules
- Provide feedback to users on job completion

Provides accurate accounting information about your print environment

Accounting reports

Accounting Option data flow

