Paul Lundy serves as Vice President for the Healthcare Practice within the Communication & Business Process Outsourcing business of Xerox Global Services (XGS). Lundy's current focus is to drive value creation for large healthcare enterprises to efficiently manage, automate, and streamline document intensive processes while maximizing the effectiveness of communications throughout the entire document supply chain.

As an experienced high-end systems and outsourcing specialist, Lundy leads a team of consultants that provide healthcare clients with solution design, implementation project management, and ongoing management of advanced document solutions. He works with clients to measurably improve customer loyalty, retention, and cash flow through better document design and process re-engineering all while cutting bottom-line expenses.

Lundy began his career with Xerox in 1990, as a document management systems analyst. Lundy has held a number of management and technical positions within Xerox. As manager of strategic outsourcing, Lundy has worked with clients to improve their document management, image capture, and print-on-demand systems. He was named a principal in the health insurance industry and has advanced to become vice president.

Prior to joining Xerox, Lundy worked for DST Systems Inc. in Kansas City, MO; Standard and Poor's in Hightstown, NJ and with First Jersey National Bank, in Jersey City, NJ. Early in his career he was with the United States Marine Corps in Kansas City, MO.

Lundy is a certified Document Imaging Architect. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in computer information systems from Saint Leo University.
