

Kathleen Fanning

Vice President, Worldwide Taxes

Kathleen Fanning was named vice president of Worldwide Taxes for Xerox effective in January 2005. She is also a vice president of Xerox Holdings Corporation.

Kathy is responsible for overseeing all aspects of global tax planning, policy and compliance for the corporation. In this role, she works closely with all Xerox businesses and has been involved with the planning and integration of many acquisitions.

She also served as interim president of Corporate and Mergers and Acquisitions from 2015-2016. Kathy helped lead Xerox's overall business development strategy as well as drove initiatives that delivered profitable growth. She leveraged the teams of internal and external resources focused on the end-to-end management of mergers and acquisitions and all related activities.

Prior to joining Xerox in January 2005, Kathy held executive positions with GE Company and GE Capital Corporation as tax director, and most recently, as global tax director, GE Real Estate.

Kathy received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Georgia. She attended Duke University where she obtained her Master of Business Administration degree. She is also a certified public accountant.

-XXX-