

Robert Birkenholz

Vice President and Treasurer
Xerox Corporation

Robert Birkenholz is treasurer for Xerox Corporation. He joined the company and was named a vice president of the corporation in June 2016.

Robert oversees the capital structure of the corporation and is responsible for the company's insurance programs, foreign exchange, credit risk management and pension investment and funding.

Before joining Xerox, Robert was the treasurer of MeadWestvaco (MWV) since 2004 where he led the treasury, credit and tax functions for the $5 billion global packaging and specialty chemicals company. While at MWV, he established regional treasury centers, implemented a multi-currency international cash pooling operation and managed a $4 billion pension asset portfolio. Prior to MWV, Robert spent 14 years in finance and treasury at Hess Corporation.

Robert received a Bachelor of Science in mechanical engineering degree from the University of Pennsylvania and holds a Master of Business Administration degree in finance from New York University Stern School of Business.

-XXX-