This Reporting and Disclosure Guide: Retirement and Welfare Benefit Plans has been prepared for your convenience by the Knowledge Resource Center of Buck Consultants at Xerox. The guide addresses the major federal requirements for ongoing employee benefit plans. Although generally focused on rules applicable to ERISA plans, the guide also includes requirements applicable to non-ERISA group health plans through the Internal Revenue Code, the Public Health Service Act, and the Affordable Care Act.

The guide is intended as an overview of broad-based employer sponsored plans. We recommend obtaining professional consultation when addressing these federal requirements.
