

Chris Fisher

Senior Vice President and Chief Strategy Officer

Chris Fisher was named senior vice president and chief strategy officer effective September 2022. He leads the company's corporate strategy function, oversees mergers and acquisitions and is the founder and managing partner of Xerox Ventures, Xerox's corporate venture capital fund.

Chris joined Xerox in March 2019 as associate general counsel for M&A and strategic transactions before being promoted to managing director for M&A and Xerox Ventures. Prior to Xerox, Chris was an associate at Ropes & Gray LLP, a global law firm, where he advised private equity clients and global strategic clients on various transactions and governance. He began his legal career as an associate at Jenner & Block, focusing on early-stage investments, mergers and acquisitions, securities, and finance. Chris began his career in banking and was an assistance vice president at Bank of America with expertise in structured finance and global operations.

Chris received his law degree and business law certificate from DePaul University College of Law and a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from The Fisher College of Business at The Ohio State University, with a specialization in finance.